“A golden-hued Cava, with a rich nose of praline and dry spice notes accenting the flavors of crystallized honey, toast point and orange peel on the palate. Firm and distinctive, featuring a fine, satiny mousse that carries a streak of salinity on the finish. Drink now through 2021. Tasted twice, with consistent notes.”

Shimmer, Sparkle, and Shine: Bubbles I Love for the Season. Adam K.

“Parés Baltà Cava Brut NV: Intrigued by an organic traditional method sparkling wine created by Spanish sisters-in-law using native grapes? I thought you might be, and I’m happy to report that it’s delicious, to boot. It isn’t quite as yeasty or bready as other traditional method sparklers, and the fruit here leans more green pear and apple with a touch of florality. It’s the sort of sparkler that’s perfect as an apéritif, but you can just as easily put it alongside your favorite nibbles and passed hors d’oeuvres — even something more substantial, as the circumstances dictate.”

9 Amazing Sparkling Wines—All Under $30. Christine Sismondo.

“There’s a lot of value in Spanish wine, especially its cava, a lot of which is traditional method sparkling wine. An outstanding example of this is Parés Baltà Brut Cava, a biodynamic, an alternative form of “holistic” agriculture that treats the land as a larger system, and organic fizz made by two women who run their husbands’ storied family winery in Penedès, not far from Barcelona, that has developed a pretty serious cult following. Food friendly, super drinkable, and highly affordable, this wine also has a delicious rosé version available in some markets.”

Hidden Gems under 20$ Mandi Robertson.

“Parés Baltà Blanc de Pacs 2019. This electric wine is a blend of the three traditional cava grapes. Parellada, Macabeo and Xarel·lo, but in still style. Clean, bright and concentrated citrus fruit with an incredible acidity, steely minerality and great intensity of fruit. The wine remains a little plump on the palate, creating a smooth and delicate texture to balance that wonderfully high acidity. Crisp intense lemon, lime and concentrated pear notes with a touch of floral nuances. The wine finishes quite nicely with a hint of chalkiness and salinity. This would pair nicely with any seafood or fish dish, especially oysters. This wine is ready to drink. Crack it open and enjoy!”

Aucune cuvée de ce domaine hispanique ne m'a laissé sur ma « soif » à ce jour. Malgré le fait que ce producteur se spécialise principalement dans l'élaboration de mousseux, il met en bouteille des vins tranquilles tout à fait dignes de mention. Ce blanc plein de vie est un assemblage de 3 différents cépages, soit du parellada, du macabeo ainsi que du xarel·lo. Ce vin est impeccable et sans vice pour 16-17 huards! Buvez la bouteille dans les 12 à 18 mois à venir.

These two from Pares Balta, a family operation with dual sister-in-law winemakers, are perfect examples of why there is more to Penedes than Cava. Made from Xarel-lo, they sing a beautiful stony song.

2019 Pares Balta “Calcari” Xarel-lo, Penedes, Spain

Pale greenish gold in color, this wine smells of star fruit and white flowers backed by wet pavement. In the mouth, delicious white flowers and wet chalkboard minerality take on a citrus pith and faint unripe apple quality as the wine cuts a linear path across the palate. There is some weight here, silky textured and slightly voluminous, leaving the impression of a beautiful mineral fog moving across the palate. Excellent. 12.5% alcohol. Closed with a screwcap. Score: around 9.

2019 Pares Balta “Cosmic” Xarel-lo, Penedes, Spain

Pale greenish gold in the glass, this wine smells of melting snow, white flowers and green apple. In the mouth, green apple and white floral flavors are welded to a deeply mineral, wet chalkboard quality that extends to a faint drying, tannic texture as the wine finishes with hints of pomelo pith and chamomile. Gorgeous. Includes 15% Sauvignon Blanc. 14.1% alcohol. Score: between 9 and 9.5.

Wine Reviews. Simon J Woolf.

Hisenda Miret 2017. This may be a Grenache (aka Garnatxa in Catalan) on steroids, but by golly it’s wonderful stuff! Knock yourself out with the nose – it’s a superb billowy raspberry, crushed rocks and violets affair. Then the acidity hits – yes, the alcohol is high but this is so lively and fresh, it works. The fruit feels almost lean on the palate, with crunchy tannins and sour cherry notes. Underneath it all there’s a solid structure of wood smoked tannins.

Green harvesting (thinning out the bunches in early summer) played a role in the concentration here (Yields were reduced by 50%), which allowed fruit from the old Cal Miret estate to be redeployed from making a rosé, to this. Quite a dramatic change!

Still a baby, but so exciting, crammed with varietal character, vivaciousness and power.

Cellar this, if you can, to at least 2022. And if you must drink it right now, chill it down a bit- that might sound counter-intuitive, but the fruit expression deserves to be experienced just a bit cooler (12 – 14C would be about right IMO).

This is bargain priced for the quality on offer. €23.50 from the producer’s online shop. So go buy.

(by the way, this is totally not a sponsored post. I just love this wine)

Wine Reviews. Simon J Woolf.

Neolithic 2018. Made from a rare and once nearly extinct variety native to Catalonia, this is a fascinating wine. At first glance, you think it’s going to be glou-glou material: light(ish) in colour and in heft, fresh and fruity and that’s it. But... not quite. There’s a diverting vegetal character – a bit tomato-stalky, verging on sun-dried tomato – that nags away on the palate, in an entirely attractive way. It’s super refreshing, with no lack of ripeness, but yet also an attractive leanness that keeps you wanting another sip.

This is one of those bottles that slips down effortlessly, but inspires conversation too.

Really fun and individual.

Hisenda Miret 2017 “In the glass a dark and vivid red color. On the medium+ aromatic nose aromas of dark cherries, raspberries and dark berries with hints of tea leaves, tobacco, dried flowers and sweet forest fruits.

On the palate dry, full-bodied, very concentrated fruit with good balance and a bed of round tannins. Flavours are fruit forward with light creaminess, fleshy and toasted hints with spices in the back. Very interesting wine with a beautiful long finish. The wine’s originality is very enjoyable. Would love to retaste this one in 5 years.”

Cinc combinacions de vi amb menjar per gaudir a l'estiu. Jordi Bes.

Amphora Roja 2019 “Quan el serviu traieu-lo una mica abans de la nevera. Quan el tastem ens pot quedar una sensació una mica rústica, gairebé com si percebéssim en el paladar el pas per les parets ceràmiques de les àmfores, i això el pot fer molt escaient per arrossegat el punt de greix que ens poden deixar alguns menjars en el paladar. Seria el cas d'una coca de pa amb tomàquet i pernil, o fins i tot aliments curats, com la cecina (sovint es fa de vedella) o la mojama (de tonyina). En el celler també el recomanen per a plats de peix o marisc.”

Parés Baltà, Espígol 2018/19 Penedès. Julia Harding.

“In the 2019 vintage, the one that first caught my attention, the aromas are both floral and peachy, with a touch of orange, almost tropical but balanced by a more herbal and citrus quality. I found many different aromatic layers as the wine opened in the glass. Equally scented on the palate, a little more grapey, yet mouth-wateringly fresh, it unfurls to more tangy, spiced flavours. Although the fruit flavours are sweet, the wine is bone dry, with a long finish. The alcohol is a balanced 14% (13.5% on the label).

Blanc de Pacs 2019 “Parés Baltà es otra bodega sita en el Penedés. Hacen grandes vinos de agricultura biodinámica, que es algo complicada de explicar porque se basa en alineaciones planetarias y principios homeopáticos. Y, sin embargo, funciona. El blanco que nos ocupa es su vino más sencillo. La peculiaridad –es que nada es normal en Parés Baltà– consiste en que lleva las variedades tradicionales del cava –Xarel-lo, Macabeu y Parellada– pero no tiene burbujas, porque es un vino tranquilo. Sabe a flores, a peras y manzanas y es un vinazo, como el resto de referencias de esta bodega.”

Blanc de Blancs 2019 “Un blanc parfait pour l’été. Il est issu d’un mélange de cépages autochtones typiquement espagnols dominé par le parellada et complété par le macabeo et le xarel-lo. Un nez aguichant de pêche blanche, de lime et de muguet. La bouche surprend par son ampleur et sa vivacité. C’est léger tout en montrant une belle concentration de saveurs. Légèrement perlant en ouverture, n’hésitez pas à le passer en carafe (oui, oui, on peut mettre les vins blancs en carafe!) tout en prenant soin de le servir très frais.”

Mas Petit 2018 “On a droit ici à un assemblage plutôt inusité: cabernet-sauvignon et grenache à part presque égale. Il en ressort des parfums de fruits noirs, de charbon, de réglisse et d’épices douces. La bouche est large, assez riche, sans être capiteuse tout en ayant suffisamment de fraîcheur pour maintenir le tout en équilibre. C’est simple et efficace. Assemblage de parellada, xarel-lo et macabeu, il offre un joli nez, tout en fruit, sur des notes de poire et de pomme, avec une pointe d’agrumes et de fleurs blanches. La bouche est fraîche et juteuse, avec des saveurs pimpantes de fruits frais. Léger, sec, avec une touche de gaz carbonique qui ajoute à sa fraîcheur. Simple, mais net, savoureux, hyper bien ficelé et désaltérant. Apéritif idéal, il sera aussi délicieux avec des fritures de poisson (des sardines !) ou de légumes, des sushis et des sashimis, une salade de courgettes à la feta.”

Los mejores vinos por menos de 30€. Juan Fernández-Cuesta

Rosa Cusiné 2015. 93 puntos. Va más allá de lo que representa. Y en el fondo es un conjunto de recuerdos frutales, tostados, panadería, notas cítricas... En el fondo, y en la forma, esto es calidad. Y aquí hay mucha.

Blanca Cusiné 2012. 92 puntos. Me encanta cuando cato un espumoso y me aparecen recuerdos florales y una fruta exquisita en nariz. Este es su mensaje principal. En boca es intenso, hay notas de fruta blanca, vive tranquilo y te invita a vivir.

Hisenda Miret 2018. 94 puntos. Se le nota la juventud mucho más que en catas de años anteriores. Y a la vez, el primer golpe de boca es puro carácter. Una sensación de frutillos rojos impactante y una finura impresionante. Magnífico desde cualquier punto de vista.

Electio 2017. 94 puntos. A esto le llamo categoría. Sensación de vivir a través del sabor. Y cuanto más viejo es, mejor se entiende su longitud inmensa, su elegancia y esa sensación de acidez que le aporta hasta color a nuestras actuales vidas.

Mas Irene 2017. 93 puntos. Puro sabor, notas minerales y de hojarrasca. Una sensación frutal más que original. Hablaríamos incluso de belleza interior, de una mezcla de uvas fantástica a veces y otras genial. Una muestra imprescindible.

Amphora Roja 2019. 93 puntos. Inmensa categoría, repleto de recuerdos frutales como el mango y melocotón. No es que sea intenso, va mucho más allá. Y es adorable, por su volumen, por su vida en boca, por su crianza en ánfora y la serenidad que aporta al final.

“Qui ne connaît pas le cava d’entrée de gamme de Parès Balta Brut sur notre marché ? Voici le grand frère, plus solide, plus affirmé, plus cher aussi, mais il vaut tellement le coup ! (et le coût !) Aussi tendu, davantage dense, donc plus long en bouche et plus orienté vers des accents pâtisseries que ceux de pommes, avec une touche de miel et une petite pointe anisée en finale de dégustation qui nous indiquent son beau potentiel de garde (avis à ceux qui ont un cellier / 2025). La bûche de Noël au chocolat blanc ou avec meringue a trouvé ses bulles !”

“It’s not just wine lovers who are interested in the historic Penedès winery Parés Baltà, archaeologists ‘dig’ the place too. They have found ruins dating to the 7th century BC at the estate where vines were first planted in 1790. At one site in the Foix mountains within the Cusiné family’s five estates – which have a total of 196ha of vineyards – they discovered evidence of civilization from 2,700 years ago; at another the ruins are about 2,200 years old.”

2PR 2018. 93 points. Light, delicate dark fruits, dusty plum and dried black cherry, crushed herbal notes, fennel and sage, light hit of citrus peel. Round and vibrant on the palate with plush fruit, vibrant acidity and great length to it.

Silvestris 2018. 93 points. Rich dark fruits, ripe cherry, baked fig, touch of dried blackberry, caramel, light nuttiness, cured orange peel. Crisp, structured fruit on the palate, tannins still a bit green and integrating, but very crisp and lively overall.

Dolç d'en Pique 2017. 94 points. Ripe, viscous red fruits, sweet hazelnut, vanilla, creamed citrus notes, very aromatically complex. Very expressive on the palate as well with a wealth of dark fruits bounded in by vibrant acidity and excellent length.

Los tres rincones del aceite catalán. Jordi Luque.

“Las autoras del zumbido que se escucha al bajar del coche podrían ser chicharras –gigantescas, porque el ruido es considerable–. “Son los aplausos”, dice Jordi Fernández, el enólogo de ‘Gratavinum’, una bodega del Priorat donde, además de vino, elaboran aceite. Con los aplausos se refiere al sonido generado por una suerte de peines gigantes que se abren y se cierran en lo alto de unos brazos telescópicos, que habilidosos temporeros manejan como peluqueros del olivar.”

Simon J. Woolf.

2PR 2018. 4,3/5 points. What’s spellbinding about this wine is the acidity and the freshness – and at 15% alcohol. Yes, it’s Priorat and it’s a big wine, but so nimble and full of tension. Packed with redcurrant and raspberry, hints of cacao and woodsmoke. Impressively fruit focused.

Silvestris 2018. 4/5 points. Super ripe, with some meaty, animal notes and a hint of iodine and iron. Big and concentrated, but with Carignan’s trademark sour twang and funkiness. A bit smoky and dusty as it opens up to the finish, but overall a great wine showing lots of regional and varietal typicity.

GV5 2013. 3,8/5 points. Inky black, with roasted, meaty aromas, baked plums and graphite. Warming and delicious on the palate, with great balance and perfect evolution. Roasted fruits, fully evolved tannins. Everything in its place. A big wine but with surprising drinkability, and one that really speaks of this hot, mountainous region.

Dominio Romano 2015. 93 points.

93 | Dominio Romano $40
2015 Ribera del Duero This is a project by the Cusiné family of Parés Balta in Penedès, established near Peñafiel in 2005. They have focused on tempranillo from sandy soils tended by growers throughout the region, this wine from vines at least 30 years old, aged in 400-liter French oak barrels that have been used for one prior vintage. The wine's fruit is immediately red, with notes of sweet plums and raspberries, fragrant and clean. It has the tannic richness of Ribera del Duero tinto fino, and smoky power from its oak, but the wine carries itself with some delicacy, its crisp fruit bringing fresh air. USA Wine Imports, NY

Camino Romano 2018. 4,3/5 points. I started salivating already with the nose of this wine – it's slightly bloody, with cranberry and a slight toastiness. Super juicy strawberry fruit, with a smoky, earthy hint, gorgeous acidity and bright red berry fruit, topped off with sappy, soft tannins. Effortlessly balanced and elegant.

This is how wonderful Tempranillo – or Tinto Fino to give it the regional name in Ribera del Duero – can be when it's not dried out and oaked to death.

Dominio Romano 2015. 4,5/5 points. Smoky and dark fruited on the nose, this has the same joyful red fruit as its little brother the Camino – but here there's a lot more structure, more "seriousness", plus wonderful acidity and mineral energy. That feeling of sappy and playful strawberry and raspberry fruit is still there, but here wrapped around a more age-worthy style.

In the first flushes of youth, you could forget about this for the next 5-10 years and it should be glorious. But it's pretty damned enjoyable now too!
